

REPORT 2019-2021

ECO CLUB

J.B. COLLEGE (AUTONOMOUS)

February. 2020: National Science Day Celebration.

On 28th February, 2020, national science Day was celebrated in the college . An Interactive session took place among the ECO CLUB Members followed by a discussion among participants, led by Dr. Arunima Das Hazarika with“ Women in Science”, as the theme for the National Science Day, 2020. All the members of the ECO CLUB were really benefitted from the interaction programme.

June, 2019: World Environment Day, 2019

Every year on 5th June , the world celebrates the. In 2019. due to the Covid19 pandemic , the World Environment Day this day was celebrated in a minimalistic way with a plantation drive organised in the college campus as well as the members of the ECO CLUB were urged to join the plantation programme by planting trees and plant species of economic importance in their homestead gardens and nearby areas. The theme of the day was “ Air Pollution.”This programme aimed at increasing awareness among the students and indulge students in some environment related activities.

